Camera surveillance

PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS CATEGORIES OF INFORMATION

The legal basis for the treatment is our legitimate interest in maintaining a high level of security in and around our premises. Cameras are located outdoors around the A, B, C and D factories. We process your information to monitor facades and entrances to our properties. The legal basis for the treatment is our legitimate interest in preventing crime and vandalism and maintaining a high level of security in our area.

HOW LONG DO WE SAVE YOUR DATA?

We save your information for a maximum of ten days after recording. The reason why we need to store it for 10 days is that we need to establish that nothing has happened on / in our premises and properties during, for example, holidays and other long vacations before the data is deleted. In case of suspicion of crime, we act according to the description below.

WHO HAS ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION?

We share your personal information with the police in case of suspicion of crime. In connection with the police report, the police are informed that there is material from the camera surveillance that can be used in the investigation. If the police believe that the material may be of interest to the investigation, the material is saved and stored in safes until the police collect the material. If the police do not collect the material, it will be deleted in connection with us being informed that the investigation has been closed. We will also give service companies an opportunity to connect if needed. Service companies can not take part in recorded material but can only connect for service purposes.

Your rights

If the processing is based on your consent, you may at any point withdraw this consent. Such a withdrawal does not, however, affect the legality of the processing based on your previous consent, up to the point of its withdrawal. In accordance with data protection legislation, you may request to be informed of what personal data is being processed and demand that incorrect data be corrected.

You can also object to and demand limitation to processing of your personal data, and demand that your personal data be deleted. You are also entitled to submit a complaint to the relevant supervisory authority (the Swedish Data Protection Authority).

You may under certain conditions receive your personal data stored by us in a structured, general, and machine-readable format and you may transfer this data to another controller (data portability).
